

APT Basic Breakdown Chart

The top (Crown) box represents the complete project or strategy (or the complete part you are responsible for). The next level of boxes represent the major components (or solution parts). The lower boxes represent the elements or 'manageable bites' of the project/strategy.

